

Dare To Dream

It takes a step of faith, and confidence to achieve,
the ability to let go and the trust to believe!

It takes strength to pursue, drive to press on,
peace to obtain, that comes only from within.

It takes courage to act, it's not always as it seems.

Hope will be your answer, but you must dare to dream!

For hope deferred will fill your heart with strife,
but dreams that come true will bring joy and life!

The door of our dreams says, "Come in." It is when we believe in them, they become possible. -Deborah J. Birdoes
