

Teardrops

A teardrop doesn't weigh much, but oh all it holds inside!
It carries the weight of feelings and emotions you can't hide.
Teardrops have a job to do, to bring about relief,
To wash away your pain that comes from your grief.
They also bring back joy again and healing to your soul;
Cleansing each emotion, so let your teardrops flow!
For teardrops need to fall to get you past your sorrow.
Heaven's angels will catch them. Giving you hope for tomorrow.
